Join us to learn about an exciting curriculum that will guide your students through an archaeological excavation of Kingsley Plantation! Discover what life was like for the enslaved people who lived and worked on Fort George Island in the early 1800s. Explore how archaeologists can piece together the lives of people from the past through small items. Hone skills with primary sources, mapping and more.

The curriculum, Investigating a Tabby Slave Cabin, is part of the nationally accredited Project Archaeology series. Registration is $50 and includes lunch both days and curriculum materials. Continuing education credits are available. Please contact Emily Jane Murray at emurray@flagler.edu or 904-392-7874 to register.
