While a shard of glass may not seem like much, archaeologists can learn a lot from it about the people who used it in the past. Glass can provide archaeologists with insights into food, consumerism, architecture, trade, technology and more. Learn about common types of glass in Florida and how archaeologists can study these fragments to learn about people from the past.

Space is limited. For more information and to register, please contact:
City of Ormond Beach Leisure Services (386) 615-7081

Saturday, January 13
10am – 11am

Ormond Beach
Environmental Discovery Center
601 Division Avenue • Ormond Beach