Celebrate International Archaeology Day with a stroll through St. Augustine’s archaeological record! Find out what archaeologists have learned through excavations around the nation’s oldest city, from foundations of colonial buildings to a blacksmith forge – all while enjoying a cold beverage at four of the city’s finest establishments.