St. John’s Cemetery, Inc.

Please join us

St. John’s Cemetery Survey Project Workshop

Saturday, April 29
8:30 am-3pm

St. John’s Cemetery
301 N. “G” Street
Pensacola, Florida 32501

MORNING SESSION

8:30 Coffee and introduction to the project
9:00- 10:00 Class room instruction of survey techniques/forms
10:00 Break
10:10-12:15 Hands on training/recording of markers
12:15-12:45 Lunch will be provided for participants at no charge

AFTERNOON SESSION

12:45 -1:45 Pensacola Area Cemetery Team (PACT) Best Practices Review and Discussion
  Focus topics: protecting the historic fabric of the cemetery, landscape maintenance, conservation actions for volunteers, cleaning stone.
1:45 Break
2:00-3:30 Hands on cleaning exercises/recording

Workshop Leader(s): Margo Stringfield, UWF Archaeology Institute, with Catherine Eddins (UWF Institute Cemetery Outreach Coordinator) and Andrea Acosta (UWF Senior Graduate Student/Outreach Team Assistant).

Open to the public at no charge (reservations are required)

Please call the UWF Archaeology Institute by April 27 to reserve a spot. (850) 474-3015.

This project is sponsored in part by the Department of State, Division of Historical Resources and the State of Florida. Additional support is provided by the UWF Archaeology Institute and St. John’s Cemetery, Inc.