Weedon Island:
People, Culture, and Canoes

For almost 100 years, archaeologists have been studying the mounds and middens created by Native Americans at the Weedon Island site in St Petersburg. Join the Florida Public Archaeology Network to learn about the prehistoric people of Weedon Island and what some of the amazing finds at this site, such as the 1,100 year old canoe, can tell us about how these past residents lived.

When: Monday, November 6th, 1:00 PM – 2:00 PM
Where: St. Pete Beach Public Library
365 73rd Avenue
St. Pete Beach, 33706